There is much to be done all with this day

Roosevelt and I did need no longer feel compelled to show compliments up on each other

A Georgia woman was struck by lightning the other day and all it did for her was to scorch her hair and eyebrows

There is a great day in Washington for everybody except the banks. No one has heard of him or quoted him on anything since early trout

Today marks the passing of the Auman Club and henceforth on half of the paragraphs will not be eternally using three names in getting it with two of them together

President Roosevelt and family are not expected to return to the White House after the inauguration ceremony, but we hope he tells Mr. Taft what he left the front door key

Such another trimming up of shade trees in Dothan as you never saw before has been going on here recently, and it looks good

The Constitution says Mr. Taft indicates that there is no danger of Billy Coon replacing Billy Possum Well, if Billy Coon don't get up a bigger boom than Billy Possum neither will do the country much good or harm for that Possum's a dead one

SUPPEN CHANGES

Speaking of changes of the weather in Alabama, we have nothing to compare with this, from Frank Bennett, at Hannu, Tex. He writes back here that a cold spell of weather put a man in the notion to kill his hogs, and after he had killed them, it suddenly turned hot, and he thought to save his meat and started to town for a load of ice, and on his way home, a northerner came up and froze him and his team to death. All during one and the same day.

Frank Bennett is known in Dothan for his business, but he has been in the coal business for several years and we know he is a successful business man.

CO'S SAYS THAT NEXT

We had had T. J. L. and Billy L. and now some Southern man thinks he can't be President without a hind leg with the post office creating a Walter L. "Moth" cotton tail" error. What next? Amusement Evening Star

LAW NO GOOD

Judge Felt held in the law invalid yesterday in Birmingham when a case came on the carrying of a pistol less than twenty-four inches in length. He told him. His attention was directed to the decision of the Supreme Court on this matter, and he at once decided that the prisoner could be held. This is taken to mean that the pistol law is also in the rubbish heap. Hereafter offenses of this nature will be treated under the old statute of carrying concealed weapons.

HAVE A KICK

When the County Commission got into the notion to have the court house moved they did a very proper thing, and advertised for the lowest and best bids. The bids were opened on the first and read out when according to Martin & Turnbull a local electrical firm their bid was $480 and the Montgomery firm's was $500.

The local firm says that the commission's action was a mistake. The visitors and went into executive session and after a long session the Montgomery firm was awarded the contract to build the new court house at the price of $500. The job is now in the hands of the Montgomery firm and they closed with him. Martin & Turnbull all say that they then offered to build the new court house at a price of $475, but they were not even an opportunity to bid on it.

Now of the of the Commission is opposed this method.

FOR INSTANCE

The Montgomery Auction and Realty Company is the name of a new one in which has been organized for the purpose of doing general advantage and action business in Montgomery. Such a company has been badly needed here for some time and it is safe to say that with the existing demand for such a concern and being under the management of M. C. L. Taylor, President of the Lumber Land Company and with Mr. W. D. Brockert as manager, the company will do a good business from the start.

FRANKLIN NOTES

A mark of importance has been made in our society each succeeding year. The members have taken more interest in the literature of the time than ever before. This is shown by the fact that the first debate of the year was on the subject of the "The Great American Novel." MRS. KATE DOWNING GHENT Telephone 289.

Lunnet and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no meaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of
Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face

When I have cross'd the bar.

A Beautiful Life.

When the sweet spirit of our dear friend Mrs. G. Y. Malone heard the clear call of him who was to pilot her across the bar she was ready to embark. The twilight of life she had reached in safety—she had heard the evening bell—and the darkness held for her no fear, as she had all through life put her trust in Him who doeth all things well. Death held no terrors, and tho' the flood might bear her far, she held a perfect trust that she would see her Pilot face-to-face.

Truly was it fitting that this beautiful life should go out in the evening. That after the "lunnet and the evening star," she should hear the call to put out to sea.

'Tis hard to say farewell to her whom we all loved so dearly, but really, there should be no sadness in our last good-night, for are we not assured that if we live as she did, there will be for us a re-union and a greeting in that better land.

Mrs. Malone lived to almost the allotment of three score years and ten, she had the pleasure and satisfaction of knowing she had reared a family that any mother would have reason to be proud of —six sons she had lived to see enter manhood honest, sober, upright, Christian gentlemen. Three daughters, who are known for their gentle breeding, innate refinement, culture and goodness of heart. Truly can they say that no act of theirs has ever brought sorrow to her who they saw on yesterday, March the third had to rest beside their honored father, who preceded her just three years ago.

Early in life Mrs. Malone united with the Baptist church, but she possessed a mind too broad to be confined by church membership, and realized that God judges only by the heart. After her marriage, she chose to walk beside her life partner in the church, and as she had entrusted to him her happiness through life
"so long as they both should live," she with a perfect trust accepted his religion and united soon after marriage with the Methodist church, and there has never been a more perfect Christian example lived than that of this dear woman whom to know was to love.

Her encouraging words, her sane and sensible views of life will long remain in our memories and that we who loved her so well, may live to come near the height which she reached in Christian living, should be our daily prayer.

Since she went home—
The robin's note has touched a minor strain;
The old glad songs breathe her a sad refrain
And laughter sobs with hidden bitter pain
Since she went home.

Since she went home—
How still the empty rooms her presence blessed Untouched the pillow that her dear head pressed.
There are loving hearts who sob
in vain for rest
Since she went home

THREE MEN NAMED AS LIBERIA GOVERNORS

Washington, D. C., March 3.— Anticipating favorable action in congress on one of the proposals to pay the expenses of the proposed commission to Liberia investigate and report on conditions there, the following names have been mentioned as likely to be chosen: Mr. C. D.
Under and Mr. T. W. Foster.

In the event Congress provide the money for the commission they will be Mr. Under and Mr. Foster mean part on a regular line and thence to Monrovia on varship.

The proposition originated with Secretary Root as object being to assist Liberia in strengthening its hold on the ruins of the government and is disapproved by the vast to Washington at special delegation from Liberia.

TAFT WILL WEAR HIS TEXAS PANTS.

Washington, March 3.—William H. Taft will wear on the occasion of his inauguration a pair of trousers which were presented to him today by the Republican state committee of Texas, Colonel Cecil Lyon, chairman.

These trousers will take the form of a pair which the delegation took to Chicago with them at the time of the Republican convention intending to present them to Mr. Taft. They were entrusted to a competent policeman, who had not been found later by the Texans when they were ready to make their presentation.

The present pair are gray striped made of wool raised in the Lone Star State.

BAR LEGISLATORS IN JOINT SESSION.

Nashville, Tenn., March 3.—
The state-wide prohibition faction in the legislature spring a surprise on the administration forces today when, after the senate and house had gone into a joint session the election of the new board of commissioners was taken up.
The thirteen administration senators were still absent and therefore no quorum of the senate.
The state-wide confederate faction, however, that a quorum of the house legislature was sufficient and that they had that. The administration forces in the house had a rush for the doors, but were not quick enough and their exit was barred. Members are now speaking.

Governor Patterson today gave an address in which he takes the side of the absconding senators, declaring they did right and could have done nothing else. The election of the new board of commissioners takes the governor's archine away from him.

"DOWN IN DIXIE."

"Down in Dixie," a drama in four acts, will be presented at the Elite Theatre, Dothan, Ala., on Friday evening March 5th, by members of the faculty and students of the Southeast Alabama Agricultural school.

The drama will be given under the auspices of the Varina Davis Chapter, U. D. C., and Camp Alexander C. Gordon, U. S. C. V. The proceeds will be the nucleus of a fund for the erection of a monument to the Confederate Soldiers of Southeast Alabama.

Remarks on the Play.

"Down in Dixie" is a war play in which the subject is treated in a fair and unprejudiced manner.
The hero is from the North, the heroine from the South, and both Uncle Moseley, a Faithful Slave—are splendid types of true-hearted Americans. A Southern villain and a Northern scoundrel each figure prominently in the story, and the latter in much the worst of the two. The action of the play is very rapid, the climaxes are powerful—that of the third act being one of the strongest ever written—and the characters are drawn with that accuracy always observable in Townsend's work.

Cast of Characters.

THE DOTHAN EAGLE

—DAILY EDITION—

DOOTHAN, ALABAMA. THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 4TH, 1909.

NUMBER 196.

GALE BLOWS CARS

OFF THE TRACK.

Wilmington, N. C., March 3.—While standing at a water tank at Dudley, near Goldsboro, N. C., this afternoon, a gale, accompanied by a heavy fall of hail struck the middle of a Wilmington bound Atlantic Coast Line train of fifty-five cars, blowing five of them clear off the main line and overturning one on the track. There was no other damage.

At Clinton, N. C., in the same locality, several houses were unroofed and some blown down. At a saw mill, four miles from Clinton, a tree was blown down, killing a negro employee.

CENTRAL OFFICIALS.

This evening at three o'clock some of the Central Railroad officials passed through Dothan on a special train, en route to Lockhart on an inspection tour. They were:

General Manager T. S. Morse of Savannah, Gen. Supt. J. T. Johnson of Savannah, Supt. G. L. Candler, of Savannah, H. D. Pollard, Superintendent, Macon, R. J. Harlan, Supt., Macon, H. B. Crawford, Supt., Columbus, W. H. Cotter, Supt. Cedartown. They will return to-night.

STOLEN MULE, SHOT DEPUTY

A few weeks ago Mr. C. S. Taylor, of near Taylor, had a mule stolen from his lot, and he summoned one John Fowler, who formerly worked with him, but who was then on Ed. Sheffield's place across the river in Early county. He went over to investigate and found both the mule and the mule. The negro said he had the mule belonged to Mr. Taylor, but that another negro brought over there. Mr. Taylor said that he didn't suspect the negro, so he wouldn't run off his mule. He could get back to Macon and have a warrant sworn out for him. He swore out the warrant and Sheriff Butler sent a deputy to Macon and succeeded in getting the mule, but not until the mule had been shot. Just how severely he was hurt is not known.

SNOW FOR INAUGURAL.

Washington, March 4.—A blizzard was on the march when it began yesterday, showing no sign of abating and the precipitation became more of snow than rain. Prominent men were seen in the snow, which the wind was blowing in a deep snow drift at 2:30 this (Thursday) morning and now still was falling.

WILLIAM H. TAFT.

WHO ASSUMES TO DAY THE DUTIES OF PRESIDENT.

J. D. CREWS DEAD.

SALARY OF PRESIDENT

IS FIXED AT $75,000.

Mr. J. D. Crews, who was accidentally shot last Thursday, and who was brought to the infirmary here last Sunday, died this morning at one o'clock of blood poison.

He was U. S. Deputy Marshal for the Western District of Florida, having been appointed by the President in 1904, but was on a leave of absence at the time of his death. He was on his way to make a tour of duty at the time of his death.

He was about 45 years old, and had eight children, the oldest a boy 19 years old. His wife was here when he died, and also his mother. Mrs. J. S. Coleman, of Macon, Ga., was the widow of the late president, speaker of the house and federal judge.

Washington, March 3.—The salary of President Taft will be $75,000 a year, according to an agreement reached to-day by the conference on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. In the sundry civil bill there is an amendment giving the president $25,000 for traveling expenses, and, if this is agreed to, the annual compensation of the president will be $100,000. The Senate conference on the legislative bill receded from amendments increasing the salaries of the vice president, speaker of the house and federal judges.

Thursday, March 4, 1909

There is much to be said in this city with this day.

Reverend and I have been no longer feel compelled to show compliments up on each other.

A Georgia woman was struck by lightning the other day and all it did for her was to scratch her hair and eyebrows.

There is a great day in Washington for everybody except the banks. No one has heard of him or quoted him on anything since early frost.

Today marks the passing of the Annapolis Club and here both on half of the paraphernalia will not be eternally using three men on spilling it with two of them together.

President Roosevelt and family are not expected to return to the White House after the inauguration ceremonies but we hope he tells Mr. Taft where he left the front door key.

The Constitution says: Mr. Taft indicates that there is no danger of Billy Coon replacing Billy Possum. Well, if Billy Coon don't get up a bigger boom than Billy Possum neither will do the country much good or harm for that Possum is a dead one.

SUPPEN CHANGES

Speaking of changes of the weather in Alabama we have nothing to compare with this, from Jack Bennett, at Hamlin, Tex. He writes back here that a cold spell of weather put a man in the notion to kill his hogs and after he had killed them it suddenly turned hot, and he thought to save his meat and started to town for a load of ice and on his way home, a northerer came up and froze him and his team to death. All during our and the same day.

Frank Bennett is known in Dothan for his business but he has been in the coal business for several years and we know how beneficial in fluences have been around him.

CO'S TALKS NEXT

We had today the usual Billy Possum and now Sam Southern. Billy Possum has not the right leg with the pistol but is creating a William Wallace situation. What a situation! Aunty's Evenin' Star.

LAW NO GOOD

Judge Forbitt in the law invalid yesterday in Dothan when a case came on the carrying of a pistol. The twenty-four inches in the cane hit him. His attention was directed to the decision of the Supreme Court on this matter and he at once decided that the prisoner could be held. This is taken to mean that the pistol law is also in the rubbish heap. Hereafter offenses of this nature will be treated under the old statute of carrying concealed weapons.

HAVE A KICK

When the County Commission got into the notion to have the court house fixed they did a very proper thing and advertised for the lowest and best bids. The bids came in on the first and I did not wait in waiting to Martin & Tamm. I had the bid from them bid was $480 and the Martin & Tamm's was $430.

The local business that the commission wanted the vendors and went into executive session and they called back the Martin & Tamm and told him that the bid was not the contract to him. He called at the price and the price was $430. Then he went to the police and they closed with him. The Martin & Tamm all say that they then left the court house but it was not a returned. The home firm that they were made to for them was a claim against of $7 to the county in the market and had they were not even an opportunity to cut them down on the other man.

Law of the County Commission is opposed this method.

FOR INSTANCE

The Montgomery Austin and day Company is the name of a new concern which has been organized for the purpose of doing general salvage and auction business in Montgomery. Such a company has been badly needed here for some time and it is said to say that with the exception of doing for such a concern and being under the management of M. A. L. Fuller, President of the Fuller Land Company and with Mr. H. D. Brackett as manager the company will do a good business from the start.
